Pure Move

PURE's Move DAB/FM portable radio provides over 40 hours output whether using internal speaker or its headphone output. The built in battery pack recharges from the mains.

Move's pocket-sized dimensions (15cm x 8.5cm x 2.7cm) make it the ideal travel companion. The Move can be used with headphones without extending the aerial; without disturbing others. It is ideal when you are on the go or on the Move. Alternatively, the fun can be shared with friends thanks to the high quality in-built speaker.

The Move comes with many useful features; 20 presets; an auxiliary input for connecting an iPod or MiniDisc player and a mini USB connection for future product upgrades. It is also possible to plug the headphone output into a hi-fi system and use it as a DAB tuner, while integrated FM reception enables listening abroad or in areas of reduced DAB coverage.

Please note The Move does not have the ivox speech facility.
